

GET YOUR GST SORTED ✓

It's what we do...

Late nights finishing GST at the last minute?

Fed up with the hassle of processing your bank transactions?

Are you making too many errors?

These are all common questions we ask our rural clients who process their own GST. Yes it can be cost effective to do your own GST but think about the cost versus benefits of having us prepare the GST returns for you.

FARMING GROWTH[©]

Rural Accounting Specialists

A division of PKF Carr & Stanton Ltd

Benefits of us preparing the GST returns:

- Free up your time to do things you enjoy
- Peace of mind knowing the GST is taken care of by experts
- Your record keeping system is in order
- GST errors minimised so no stress if the IRD come knocking
- We supply accurate cashflow reports showing you how your business is performing
- We can identify issues with costs as they arise

What do we do?

Our team will

- Review your current record keeping system to ensure it's the most efficient system for GST return preparation. If a change is required we will deal with this as a separate project.
- Setup auto bank feeds of data
- Either request your invoice file or send you a list of unidentified transactions for you to analyse
- Process your bank transactions
- Complete and file your GST return
- Advise you of the amount due or GST to be refunded
- Check IRD's assessment once processed
- Deposit any refunds to your business bank account
- Supply you with a cashflow report for the year to date

Our Cost: starting from $150 plus GST per month. Fixed price agreed upfront for the year ahead so you know.

What do you need to do?

- Tell us you are ready to hand over the GST processing function
- We will arrange a short consultation to go over your business and current systems
- We will provide you with an upfront monthly quote for the next 12 months
- We take care of the rest

Still not convinced? Existing clients have their say ...

"I didn't look forward to doing GST every 2 months. I've handed that over to the experts"

"I used to leave it to the last minute, be late and incur penalties. That worry has gone away now"

"A huge weight has been lifted off my shoulders and I can focus on doing things I like now"

GET YOUR GST SORTED ✓

... so you can be out where it really counts